A Month for Our Men

For many, last month was filled with all things feminine. There were delicate flowers to be planted, and Mother's Day brunches, lunches, and tea parties to attend. Everywhere you looked there were pastel pinks and blues, along with plush, stuffed baby animals ranging from ducks to bunnies and baby lambs. Spring had us celebrating the miracle that is motherhood, and it was lovely. But now, June is upon us, and it's high time we celebrate the guys in our lives.

Besides being the ultimate month for cookouts, June is home to Father's Day (June 18th) and Men's Health Week (June 12th – 18th), two perfect reasons to hang out with the men that mean the most to you. Inviting the whole group into your home (or backyard) for a celebration is always a great idea, but as any host or hostess knows, you'll be spending less of your time relaxing with your cold beverage of choice and more time picking up the ketchup-smeared-up napkins your guests leave behind. Instead, why not join us at our campus for all of the fun and none of the clean-up? Contact us to find out what great community events we're hosting this month!

Of course, you don't have to have a party in order to show the men in your life that you appreciate them. In fact, they would probably love a relaxing afternoon spent with 'just the guys'. Coincidentally, that's exactly what our male-centric program is called at our campus! Our Just the Guys program gives our guy residents a chance to gather together and spend an afternoon enjoying each other's company, whether that means placing bets and telling tall-tales over a game of cards, snagging a bite to eat at one of their favorite restaurants, or taking a trip to a museum or attraction that piques their interest. Anything goes for our guys!

If you have a male relative or friend at our campus, this month is the perfect time to visit them. The two of you can join us for an outing, or just spend some quality one-

Executive Director Corner

For many, fathers are the biggest source of strength for a child. The innocent eyes of a child perceive father as the all-powerful, most knowledgeable, truly affectionate and the most important person in the family. For most daughters, fathers are the first men they adore and fall in love with. While for sons, many of their fathers are the strongest person they know and someone they aspire to emulate. Even for the grownups fathers are someone whom they look up to for the most experienced and honest advice that is always in the best of our interest. For this great figure in our life that we know as father - it becomes our utmost duty to pay our humblest tribute on the occasion of Father's Day. Thank you for all that you have done and continue to do in the lives of those who love you most!

It is June so we should be well on our way to beautiful weather!

Our Campus in Color is unfolding right before your eyes. We hope you are enjoying the beautiful landscaping and gardens as much as we are!

Lastly, I would like to remind you of a fantastic way to stay connected with your loved ones, remind them of upcoming appointment and share photos of their past as well as pictures of vacations. Our complimentary LifeShare System has many wonderful features and benefits to enhance the social connectedness of your loved one. LifeShare also enables families to stay up to date on events at our campus. You can more effectively engage with loved ones and staff right from your phone. Please see any member of the leadership team for additional information!

As always, thank you for the opportunity to serve!
