The Wonderful World Wide Web

Just a few short years ago, if someone were to tell you that with a couple clicks on a keyboard you could access information from nearly anywhere in the world, they would have sounded crazy. Now, what was once something out of science fiction has become a reality. The internet has changed our lives in ways we couldn't have imagined. If we don't feel like going to the mall, we can shop online. If we're wondering who plays our favorite character in a movie, we can ask Google. We can even meet people, connect, and fall in love, all through the World Wide Web. Today is World Wide Web Day, and in honor of the internet, we're going to share with you a few tips and tricks for navigating this useful tool.

We'll start with a few words on the mother of all search engines, Google. By using Google, you can find answers to millions upon millions of questions, from, "What is Brad Pitt's favorite food?" to "Why are the leaves of my daisies turning yellow?" To access Google, type in www.google.com into your internet search bar, and then type your question into the box on the screen. Within seconds, you'll be given a list of websites that hold the answer you're looking for.

If it's your first time using Google, it's good to have a friend on-hand to help. Any member of our campus team would be willing to show you how to get started, and guide you through your first few searches. All you have to do is ask.

Besides answering your questions, the internet is a great way to connect with loved ones, whether they're a few miles away or halfway around the world. By using social media platforms like Facebook, you can view pictures, write messages, and share exciting news with family members and friends. If you don't have a Facebook account, ask a loved one, or a member of our campus team, to help you set one up. Besides connecting with your friends and family who also use Facebook, you can follow our campus and keep up with all of our activities and events.

Executive Director Corner

Greetings! I hope that you're soaking up the last of these hot summer days before school starts and the weather begins to cool. We've been having a blast over the past few months at our campus, and this month has something special in store for all of our residents – Theme Week!

Our staff is looking forward to transforming our campus into a Caribbean cruise ship, and setting sail for a week's worth of fun activities with friends August 14th through the 18th. To top it all off, we'll be hosting our mouth-watering Themed Dinner on the 17th. If you've seen any pictures of our previous Themed Dinners on Facebook and Twitter, you know that our chefs really savor this opportunity to wow our residents with meals that are almost too beautiful to eat! Make sure that you're following our social media accounts to view our latest pictures, and stop by any time to experience our famous hospitality for yourself.

I'd like to close by thanking you for allowing us to serve your loved one, and for making us a part of your extended family. It is the goal of every member of our team to exceed your expectations, and we look forward to another month of doing just that.

Yours in Service,
Matt Cantrell
Executive Director

Volunteer News

We would love the opportunity for you or your family members to come and volunteer at our campus. Please see a member of our Life Enrichment Team for more information. We are looking for volunteers to call Bingo on Wednesday afternoon from 3:30-4:30pm. We also need people who would like to paint fingernails for our residents on Tuesday afternoons. If either of these appeals to you please contact Adrena Crace, Life Enrichment Director at 260-274-0444

‘World Wide Web’

If you're a fan of great stories that range from funny to heartfelt and everything in between, you'll definitely want to read our blog, Living With Purpose. Just type www.lwptoday.com in your internet search bar. Within seconds you'll have access to recipes straight from our chefs (and residents!), powerful life stories, and helpful information about senior living.

If you're interested in learning more about the wonders of the World Wide Web, contact your Villa Lifestyle Director today. We're happy to arrange a speaker or a tutorial at your Villa Clubhouse. The internet may be intimidating at first, but with a little guidance, you'll be a pro before you know it!

We're Having a Sleepover!

In honor of National Grandparent's Day, we're inviting the grand-children of our residents to join us for a night of food, fun, and fantastic company on Saturday, September 9th! Stay tuned for more details, and ask a member of our campus team how you can join the party!
