Catch the Travel Bug!

Travelling can be such a hassle. How many people go into planning a trip with the best of intentions, only to end up drowning in a sea of ticket options, reservation agreements, timetables, refundable and non-refundable deposits, competing hotels and airlines, and the thousand other unforeseen inconveniences lurking just beneath the surface? As we age, these aspects of planning a trip become even more bothersome. And if that weren't enough to keep many at home, seniors are faced with another anxiety-producing aspect of vacationing – who will be there if they need help?

At Trilogy, we believe that everyone should have the opportunity to take a hassle-free vacation, no matter their age. Recently, some of our top minds teamed up to search for a solution that would allow our campus and villa residents, their family members and friends to vacation without worry. This is how the Trilogy Travel Club was born.

The Trilogy Travel Club is an all-inclusive travel service provided for those who live in a Trilogy community, as well as their friends and family. You can think of the Travel Club as your convenient, on-hand travel agents. Throughout the coming year, we'll be offering trips throughout the U.S. Take a look at our schedule!

This great group of women use the clubhouse every month for their meeting. Our dietary department provides delicious food and the women donate $6 per person towards our "Independence from Hunger" and "Hope for the Holidays" community fundraisers.

Special Events from Last Month

The Villa Community said farewell to our dear, dear friend Alan W. March 18 in the community clubhouse. Alan was such a sweet funny man who always had time to tell a story about his exploits during his military service. He had a sly wicked sense of humor. When the Patriots lost the Super Bowl, he gave our friend Judy T. (huge Tom Brady fan) a wrapped box of Kleenex. He told her he figured she would need them because of all of her crying over the Patriots loss. He loved to play Euchre and began to deal as soon as 3 other players showed up. Game nights are not the same. Love you Alan, a life well lived, go in peace.
